FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 1, 1900.

DID THE BEST HE COULD .- Two children were dragged from a burning house on the truck farm of T. Steer Bickslow, near Medis, Pa., Wednesday night, by their eight year-old brother, who, driven out by the flames, left bimother and a baby to perish. Mr. Bick-loe's farm, a mile from Media, is in the care of a French family of newcomers, whose names could not be as-certained Wednerday evening. From the little hero who saved two lives and made a gallant effort to snatch two more from the flames was learned the story of the tragedy. His mother carrying a baby and a lamp, fell on the stairway, the lamp setting fire to the house. The carpets, saturated with oil from the lamp, burned fiercely, and the boy, realizing that the house was doomed, dragged out a brother and a sister, who were intent on rushing through the fire to their mother. Then he returned for his mother, whose arms clasped the baby. But her weight was too great for his little arms, and as the flames were closing in on him he gava last despairing look at the doomed woman and fled heartbroken to a place of safety.

COAL AND WOOD

BY ELEVATING THE QUALITY of our coal we lower the price in econ consumption. Consumers will find that it is cheaper to use our high grade Lee Coal, that has been screened and freed from slate and stone, than that of an inferior grade. It gives more heat, less ashes and burns longer than any other coal, and our prices are as low as any. Coal and Wood under cover. J. R. ZIMMERMAN,
